Standard Operating Procedure (SOP)Annual Health Check-up of DJB Employees and Processing of Medical Reports

1. Purpose: To lay down a uniform procedure for conducting annual health check-ups of all Delhi Jal Board regular employees.

2. Scope: This SOP shall be applicable to all Units of Delhi Jal Board and covers the roles of Drawing & Disbursing Officers (DDOs), Medical Officers, and the Medical Screening Committee.

3. Responsibilities:

A. Employees: To undergo health check-up as directed and submit the reports to their respective DDOs.

B. DDOs: To ensure timely health check-up of employees, collect reports, and forward it to the Medical Officer.

C. Medical Officer: To scrutinize health reports and identify likely 'Not Fit' cases requiring referral to MSC.

D. Medical Screening Committee: To examine the reports of cases referred by MOI recommended & assess the cases in terms of fitness such as "FIT" or "Not FIT".

4. Procedure4.1 Initiation of Health Check-up

- i. All DDOs shall notify the employees under their control to undergo the prescribed annual health check-up at approved hospitals/health centres.
- ii. Employees must undergo the health check-up within the stipulated timeframe communicated by the DDO.

4.2 Submission of Health Reports:

- i. After completion of the health check-up, each employee shall submit a copy of their medical report to the concerned DDO.
- ii. The DDO shall maintain a register/record of receipt of these reports.

4.3 Forwarding to Medical Officer:

- i. The DDO shall forward all the health reports in a compiled form to the concerned Medical Officer within 7 working days of receipt.
- ii. A forwarding letter having employee details alongwith Employee ID, listing all enclosed health reports, must accompany the submission.

4.4 Examination by Medical Officer

- i. The Medical Officer shall scrutinize all health reports received from DDOs and categorised the employees in "FIT"/"UNFIT"/"Needs further Assessment".

4.5 Referral to Medical Screening Committee

- i. All cases marked "Unfit / Needs Further Assessment" shall be compiled by the Medical Officer with remarks.
- ii. The Medical Officer shall forward these cases to the Medical Screening Committee for further examination and recommendations.
- iii. The Medical Screening Committee shall review:
 - The health parameters and diagnosis indicated
 - Requirements of Additional examination
 - Recommendations regarding temporary unfitness, permanent unfitness, or need for specialized evaluation
- iv. Final recommendations of the Committee shall be sent to the Competent Authority for kind perusal.

5. Record Management:

- i. DDOs, Medical Officers, and the Medical Screening Committee shall maintain proper records of all reports, referrals, and recommendations.
- ii. Records shall be preserved as per DJB record retention rules.

6. Confidentiality:

All health information of employees shall be kept strictly confidential and used only for official purposes.

7. Compliance:

All DDOs and employees must adhere to this SOP. Non-compliance shall be viewed seriously and may attract administrative action.
